

Decentralization is crucial for diversification.

Major corporations must not be allowed to tighten their stranglehold on mass media.

The public only puts up with what they are given because they are not made aware of the quality programming that exists and how much more there could be. Programming that promotes knowledge in all the classic schools of learning: history, math, science, astronomy, literature...etc.

A massive programming overhaul is imminent.

Either you make it happen or we do.